

Do not relax the rules on broadcast ownership! In fact, tighten them up. The nation faces grave dangers from having sources of information and entertainment controlled by only a few, singular conglomerates.